Here are some samples of artwork 4/5D have produced this semester.

You can see botanical sketches of bottlebrush plants, which Sir Joseph Banks drew when he arrived with Captain James Cook at Botany Bay.

There are examples of self-portraits made from photographs of students.

And 4/5D have been learning to accurately use a ruler to measure in centimetres and millimetres and use our skills to create a piece of line art. Enjoy!