KG’s first FUN DAY

We grabbed our passports and wallets and were ready to explore the stalls.

Our day was filled with face painting, hair spraying and flying high on the jumping castle. Some of us even had a visit to the anti-doctor and a quick shop at the white elephant stall.

There was lots of yummy food to give us energy for the rest of the day.

We had a fantastic day and are already resting for next year!